

Academic writing and self-expression (Y-112)
(AKADEEMILINE KIRJUTAMINE JA ENESEVÄLJENDUS)

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

Credits (ECTS)	3.00 ECTS
Assessment	pass/fail
Aim of the subject and short description
This course gives an overview of essence of academic writing and teaches to understand and write academic texts of your own (including resumes, theoretical part and discussion, connections between theoretical and empirical part). It gives an overview of basics of oral and written self-expression. Speech skills, composition of message, presentation process, establishing contact with audience. Official and personal style. Body language. Oral and written language and their usage differences. Official letters. Slang in oral and written speech. Titles. Homework related to lectures and individual work in the classroom. Role plays, problem situations. Presentations.
Learning outcomes:
Student:
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Follows the conventions of academic writing2. Knows the composition principles of different academic texts3. Uses a referencing system4. Analyses mistakes made by themselves and others in various public speaking situations5. Prepares and presents speeches

□