

Estonian A1.1 (Y-115)
(EESTI KEEL A1.1)

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

Credits (ECTS)	3.00 ECTS
Assessment	pass/fail
Aim of the subject and short description
To create the assumptions for acquiring Estonian at a level that allows the student to deal with simple language situations. After completing the course, the student understands and uses everyday expressions and simple phrases to satisfy his or her needs, is able to introduce him- or herself and others. Ask simple questions about the place of residence, familiar persons and things, and can also answer to the same questions, can communicate in a simple language if the interlocutor speaks slowly and clearly and is ready to help.
Learning outcomes:
Student: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Understands and uses common expressions and simpler phrases to satisfy his/her needs.2. Knows how to introduce himself/herself and others, to ask questions about the place of residence, familiar people and things and to respond to similar questions.3. Is able to communicate in a simple language when the other conversation partner speaks slowly and clearly and is ready to help.

□