

Voluntary work internship (IBA-982) (VABATAHTLIKU TÖÖ PRAKTIKUM)

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

Credits (ECTS)	5.00 ECTS
Assessment	pass/fail
Aim of the subject and short description
The course aim to provides MBA students with the opportunity to apply their business acumen and leadership skills within nonprofit and volunteer-based organizations. Through hands-on experience, students will engage in strategic projects, enhancing their understanding of cultural diversity and social responsibility in impactful community contexts. This course bridges academic concepts with practical application, enabling students to address real-world challenges facing voluntary organizations. By the end of the internship, participants will have developed critical skills in project management, cultural competence, and strategic decision-making specific to the nonprofit sector.
Learning outcomes:
Student:
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. gains hands-on experience in applying leadership and management principles in real-world nonprofit and volunteer-based settings;2. increases understanding of diverse communities and social issues through direct engagement and collaboration with voluntary organizations;3. applis theoretical concepts learned in the MBA program to solve real-world challenges faced by nonprofits and community organizations.

□