Call for Registration: PAR International Summer School Sail & Learn 2025 – An International Academic Adventure in Rijeka

Dear students,

greetings from PAR University of Applied Sciences.

We are happy to invite you to our PAR International Summer School Sail & Learn 2025, a long-standing tradition that brings together academic staff and students from around the world and celebrates international collaboration year after year. Join Europe's only summer school that blends Adriatic sailing with Tourism Management courses – a one-of-a-kind opportunity to gain practical experience, earn ECTS credits (5 per week) and network with peers in a truly unique international setting. You may choose to attend one week, two weeks or the full program, depending on your interests and availability.

This year's edition will take place from 7 to 18 July 2025 in the beautiful city of Rijeka, Croatia. Through inspiring lectures, cultural visits and vibrant social activities – including sailing trips, a guided walking tour of Rijeka, the Dean's Dinner and excursions to some of the region's cultural treasures – Sail & Learn strikes the perfect balance between academic enrichment and summer adventure. And because no great conversation should happen on an empty stomach, daily lunches are included, offering excellent opportunities for networking and idea-sharing.
